Roy Hartman 1940 - 1980
- Familyman - Teacher -
- Humanitarian -

Roy Hartman was raised and educated in Box Hill. As a Carpenter & Joiner he worked in the area and later when he married, settled in Box Hill. He was one of the first Building Technician graduates of Box Hill Technical College. Roy became a Trade Instructor in Carpentry & Joinery at Box Hill and later an Advisor to the Industrial Training Commission and the Department of Employment and Industrial Relations. His contributions involved the development of the new course in Carpentry and Joinery and contributions to National Training Manuals.

Roy was a member of the Baptist Pioneer Youth Club, later to be Chief Leader and Church Deacon.

He was a devoted family man, foster parent and adoptive parent who enjoyed sport and gymnastics.

" His life was good news for many people because it was grounded in the Good News of God's love. "
